What D'Ya Think of Me

Sandra

Darkness in all of my dreams
Only the moon is still awake
Calmness enters my soul
Have I succeeded in life
Where have they all gone
My childhooddreams
I lie awake all nightwhat d'ya think of me...There's a curse upon that ship on the billows
Have I been stranded or have I just left my cage
Has all been lost
I have to roll my heart
like a dice
And wait for doublets to appear
Did two eyes full of intimacy dare to tell my lies
I kept belileving you
Over all these years
We're something so special
You wanted it all and even more
I still trust you
And you know itWhat D'ya think of me...
