

Ain't Wastin' Good Whiskey On You

Trick Pony

Well, it's Friday night at the Farmer's Daughter
But I'm the only one here drinkin' Barley water
You left me to drown my broken heart
But this one, I'll get over, well, stone cold sober 'Cause I don't need Jose, believe me, honey, I'm okay
Jack Daniels or Jim Beam ain't gonna pull me through
You wasted my time, my heart and my mind too
I ain't wastin' good whiskey on you And I'll admit, we've lived some on the wild side
We dug our heels in deep and had a wild ride
Oh, but one good shot of you was all I needed
So don't set 'em up, Joe, oh no, I'll stick to H2O 'Cause I don't need Jose, believe me, honey, I'm okay
A Jack Daniels or a Jim Beam ain't gonna pull me through
And you wasted my time, my heart and my mind too
(My time)
I ain't wastin' good whiskey on you 'Cause I don't need Jose, believe me, honey, I'm okay
A Jack Daniels or a Jim Beam ain't gonna pull me through
And you wasted my time, my heart and my mind too
I ain't wastin' good whiskey on you
No I ain't wastin' good whiskey on you, yee hah
