Raise

Son Lux

Raise a living thing from nothing
Then I will know for myself who you areClothed in skin a pile of dry bones
Then I will know for myself who you areI will feel breath come into my body
Then I'll know just who you areRaise a living thing from nothing
Clothed in skin a pile of dry bonesThen I will know for myself who you areRaise a living thing from nothing
Clothed in skin a pile of dry bones
I will feel breath come into my bodyThen I will know for myself who you are
Raise a living thing from nothing
Clothed in skin a pile of dry bones
I will feel breath come into my bodyThen I will know for myself who you areThen I will know for myself
You are who you say you areClothed in skin a pile of dry bones
Then I will know for myself who you are
Raise a living thing from nothing
I will feel breath come into my body
I will know for myselfwho you are
Then I will know for myself
Then I will know
Then I will know who you are
Then I will know for myself
