Lightning Song

ë¯ë¸

Lightning spits the sky
Shinning blinding white
And here I lie almost asleep
Reckoning in a place of peace
And I feel
I found my place
In time and space
In hope and faith
And love I give

My mind is clear
I have no fear
I shed no tears
For you my dear
For this world is wonderful, so beautiful
If only you could open up your mind and see
Your world is everything you ever dreamed of
If only you could open up your mind an see
The beauty that is here
