This Is How It Feels

Richard Rodgers

You keep calling my phone non-stop
Don't you know I won't pick it up
You never leave a message
Look how you've changed

You got nothing to say, getting in my way
You show up at my house
Your getting so obsessive
Like I have time for you

Wasn't it me you didn't want
Wasn't it me who's hanging on
No I'm done but before I go I want you to know

[Chorus]
This is how it feels
When you wait for a call that never comes
Are you waking up 'cause you miss someone
This is how it feels
When the trust you had is broken,
And you're left to burn with your heart wide open

You wanna meet up and tell me why
Why and how you had the heart to fuck up my whole life
That's just so you

And now I've moved on by myself
And baby I won't forgive
I'll just forget you lived
And I hope it hurts

Wasn't it me you try to blame
Wasn't it me you threw away
But before you go there's something you should know

[Chorus]

You taught me how to hate you
And I was so in love
When I tried to save us it was not enough

So what the hell is different
Cause now that I am gone
You're calling back to tell me
I'm the one

This is how it feels.

[Chorus]

Do you only want me
Cause you can't have me
Do you only want me
Cause I'm gone
Do you only want me
Cause you can't have me
Do you only want me
Cause I'm gone
Do you only want me
Cause you can't have me
Do you only want me
Cause I'm gone
Do you only want me
Cause you can't have me
Do you only want me
Cause I'm gone

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Origliasso, Jessica Louise / Origliasso, Lisa Marie / Gad, Toby Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing, BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/