Burning Man

Richard Thompson

Out there in the desert air
Penguin meets the polar bear
Hey ho pilgrim
Light the precious flameBurning Man with flames for eyes
Burning Man lights up the skies
Hey ho pilgrim
Anarchy's the gameAnd I'll care for you
For a day or two
Strangers meeting in the darkness
Underneath the arch of wheels
Funny how it healsGatherin' from all around
Gather at the sacred ground
Hey ho pilgrim
Spin the wheel of sinMad Max and hulks of rust
Out there in the desert dust
Hey ho pilgrim
Without you and withinAnd give me bread
And I'll give you wine
Dragon cars and silver walkers
Wear the art and build the shrine
Yours and mineOut there in the desert air
Penguin meets the polar bear
Hey ho pilgrim
Light the precious flameBurning Man with flames for eyes
Burning Man lights up the skies
Hey ho pilgrim
Anarchy's the game
