Entertain The Pain

My Favorite Highway

It's been a long year without you
And I can't seem to go one day without thinking about you
It's not that I doubt you, if I found you
Would I put my arms around you
Wish I could let you know how much I miss you
Entertain the pain, if I could I would kiss you
I wanna be with you
I've tried letting go, I don't know how to quit youNo, baby, you can't change me
But maybe you'll find that you'reBetter off, better off
That's what you get for, that's what you get for Moving on, moving on
Try and forget you, try and forget like
Every tear you ever cried
Pack them up and say goodbye
Moving on, and that's what you get forI spent a long time without you
I'm still doing everything I can just to not think about you
Not that I doubt you, if I found you
Would I let my thoughts surround you
I feel just a little bit stronger
I'll wait just a little bit longer
But I'm doing just fine without you, babeSpend the night alone again
Waste the air you're breathing in
Close the curtains and lock the door
Hide from what you're waiting for Could've wasted time on me, given up so easily
But I think you're better moving on
