Madvillain

Two, two, one, twoHow Doom hold heat, and preach non-violence?
Shh, he 'bout to start the speech, c'mon, silence
On one scary night, I saw the light, heard a voice
That sound like Barry White said, "Sure you're right" Don't let me find out who tried to bite
They better off goin' to fly a kite in a firefight
During tornado time with no coat then I caught ya
Wrote the book on rhymes, a note from the authorWith no head shot, he said it's been a while
Got a breadwinner style to get a inner child up in to smile
And that's no exaggeration, the doctor told a patient
"It's all in your imagination Negro" Ah, what do he know? About the buttery flow
He need to cut the ego, trippin', to date the Metal Fellow been rippin' flows, since New York
Plates was ghetto yellow with broke blue writingThis is too exciting
Folks leave out the show feelin' truly enlightened
They say, "The Villain been spittin' enough lightning
To rock shock the Boogie Down to Brighton," aight thenYeah, check, it's enough
Uh, yeah, nowHow Med hold heat like Clint East is reborn?
Lethal with more holes than a dartboard
Haters watch him, Hennessey double shot drink
Like the answer to the problem's at the bottle's bottomUh, from the [Incomprehensible] that homey pay how you owe me
My niggaz take no like Kobe
Even with the the arms of the Hawk, you couldn't hold me
From gettin' mines, stogies be rolled, smokin' and gettin' byThanks to rap I ain't got a dime
Got me sneakin' out of checkout lines with bottles by the waist side
Yeah, smack 'em in the face, let 'em taste pride
Face trial, end up washed up like the shorelinesDo or die ride, how the dead return
Street turns, keep me in this dirt, like an earthworm
What he spit hits and grows, will brothers ever learn
Worth a word, chat with a nerd, meeting adjourned
