

Take Me Back (Parker's Regrooved Remix)

Michael Jackson

Take me some place different somewhere by the ocean and not return to the city and all it's bad emotioni don't wanna life x2 in the rain no more i just wanna go x2 where it's always warmcome on and take me away to where the sun is always shining and the sky is always blue i wanna life somewhere that's beautiful and i wanna be there with you we can leave this grey behind us and start our life anew forget our work and daily life forever me and you
i know i'm deep in love passion in the sunshine is what i'm thinking ofi don't wanna go x2 in to work no more no one understands make stupid demands i don't know what it's foroh baby take me away
hee hee aow come on and take me awayi want my baby i want my baby with me i want my baby x3
i want my baby with me i want my baby tonight i want my babycome on and take me away

i wanna live somewhere that's beautiful and i wanna be there with you
forever me and you i want my baby
i want my baby
