

Roads to Rome

Breakup

I don't care
who you're seeing naked as long as I still make it into your bed
I'm not scared
to spot yo on the arm of any other heartthrob
I know what we have
And you'll have others
and they'll be fine
but there'll be glitches when I slip into your mind
And all of my lovers
even if they're divine
I'm sure they won't have me twitching within minutes every time Yeah you always get me straight to goal
With you all ways
seem to take me home like the roads to Rome
