

Retribution Shall Be Mine

Ensiferum

No sun rises today
No moon shares it's light
Eclipse of soul
Growing breach of faith Pierced by bitter deception
Chained to the darkness
Left to rot with hate I can't escape from this living hell
But in my dreams the justice dwells
Betrayers are torn apart
And my hate will fade away with their blood My hate runs deep
In the waters of grudge and unforgiveness Leniency is for the weak
I'd rather die than show you mercy
Slaughter is yet to come Retribution shall be mine!
Oh Gods of vengeance, fill my heart! This is mine
The one and final fight
I choose not to die
With these demons by my side
