

Country Roads

Brittany Snow

Do you really think you know
 Exactly where I stand?
 Or did I just let you down
When you found out I was just a poor man?I might of took a few wrong turns
 Down a few wrong roads
 Wound up in a few wrong towns
Where nobody cares or goesIt ain't that I can't see
 Or find my way home
 It's just that I like to breath
Out on country roadsI've never been much on down town
 Or cared for a place to stay
 I know I'll never wear no crown
I'll never be a king of slavesWash my hands in the rain
 I've spent my time with the whiskey
 I'll never give up on change
Or give a damn if you will ever miss meIt ain't that I can't see
 Or find my way home
 It's just that I like to breath
Out on country roadsI know I'll never stick around
 I'll never lose track of time
 Or worry about a little old town
Or what I might of left behindI'll just let the sun shine down
 I'll just let them big wheels roll
 Keep on running around
Them big old country roadsIt ain't that I can't see
 Or find my way home
 It's just that I like to breath
 Out on country roads
