

Mind Reader

VersaEmerge

Hey, mind reader, you know what I feel
Before I speak it always seems you gotta one up me
Have a worse for me is not what you need
I've got it all and you've got nothingHey, mind reader, bet you didn't see this one coming
'Cause your eyes are never open
I've said sorry, you just mock me
And I'm ready to throw this up and awayI'm not able
Able to sayDon't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each otherDon't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each otherDon't let me get away
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get awayHey, mind reader, just as soon as I leave the room
My stomach drops, my guts I lose
I'm not the type to follow through
But you already knew that, didn't you?Hey, mind reader, quick steps, reality check
I might be gone before you're back
You bite your nails at the thought of that
Just tell me off and let me hear you sayAre you able
Able to stay?Don't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each otherDon't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each otherDon't let me get away
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get awayStart speaking your mind reading
You can't keep me out, believe it
Start speaking, say what we mean
No lies tucked in between our teethDon't let me get away
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get awayDon't let me get away
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get awayDon't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each otherDon't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each otherDon't let me get away

Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
We could use each other
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away Hey, mind reader
