The Fever [x2]

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

Yeah, she's running on empty

She can't feel for the second choosing

To live her life without you

She'd be the one to - she'd be the one to

Try and find what I'm after

B. She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts

C. He thinks it's easy

But it's not easy

Because without him

My heart is empty

He thinks it's easy

But it's not easy

Because without him

My heart is empty

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

Yeah, she's running on empty

She'd be the one to say 'I don't know

I don't know anything about you'

But she can't live - she can't live -

She can't live without you

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts

The Fever [x2]

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts

(B and C simultaneously four times)

(A joins in on third time)
