

The Golden Age

Woodkid

Walking through the fields of gold
In the distance, bombs can fall
Boy were running free
Facing light in the floor
In the cherry trees
Were hiding from the wold
The golden age is over (2x) Boy, were dancing through the snow
The waters freeze
the wind blows
Did you ever feel
Were falling as we grow
No I would not believe
The lights could ever go
The golden age is over (2x) Listen, I can hear the call
As Im walking through the top
Did you ever dream wed miss the mornings in the sun
The playgrounds and the streets
The bliss of slumberland
Boy were family, no wonder what they say
But boys are meant to flee
And run away, one day When the golden age is over
Oh the golden age is over
But the golden age is over
The golden age is over
