Hours Of Wealth

Opeth

Found a way to rid myself
Clean of pain
And the fever that's been haunting me
Has gone away
Looking through my window
I seem to recognize all the people passing by
But I am alone and far from home
Nobody knows me
Never heard me saying, "Goodbye"
Never shall I speak to anyone again
All days are in darkness and I'm biding my time
Once I am sure of my task I will rise again
