Always A Victim

Trixter

Just like an arrow between the eyes
Never saw it comin' but it made me blind
And in my darkness fell to my knees
Can't you hear me screamin', baby, please, please, pleaseFeel like a prisoner locked up in time
There's no escaping, baby
You're the mastermind
When will this sentence ever end
And let my new life beginIf this is a crime, you'd be convicted
I'll do my time, I'm your victim
You stole my heart, you tied me in chains
I'll do my time, I'm your victimAlways a victim
Always a victim
Always a victimShe took my heart and she threw it awayLike the keeper you hold the key
I'm the captive of your insanity
You know you're guilty, no alibi
Ain't no justice, no reason why
When will this sentence ever end
And let my new life beginIf this is a crime, you'd be convicted
I'll do my time, I'm your victim
You stole my heart, you tied me in chains
I'll do my time, I'm your victimWell, I'm screamin' my heart out
I'm down on my knees
I get no reaction
What more do you want?
I'm standing to beIf this is a crime, you'd be convicted
I'll do my time, I'm your victim
You stole my heart, you tied me in chains
I'll do my time, I'm your victimAlways a victim, yeah, yeah
Always a victim
Always a victimAlways a victim
Always a victim
Always a victimWell, she took my heart and she threw it away
