

Follow in the Cry (Session) [Remaster]

After Forever

Behind your facade hides an indomitable lust for power and tyranny Taking advantage of your pendencies Fear is the doom, doom of us all Instead of exterminating the weed
We allow it to overgrow our function All means are justified for the "dihad fi sabil Allah" I embrace you, accept my soul
I shall make my life subordinate to you Live like your rules and laws prescribe and follow you wherever I go Follow in the cry Hang this heretic who's indulged in unchaste thoughts Silence him such as the laws of the vellums prescribe Pusillanimous massacres the order of the day
On behalf of power-hungry fundamentalists
