To Dust and Mind

Manila Under Fire

Bruises beaten Bones ignored yet
Needed for my naked mind and
The moon has told me
They're gonna get for me

Brothers pleaded, halls are screaming
Ad augusta per angusta
Even through the Fire and the flames

Breathing in the life
You made it
Praying for the Souls worth saving

Mother Mary won't you save me
I've been waiting for you to take Me away from broken promises

Wide awaken, disconfusion
So chaotic, traumatizing
You're gonna get by
You're gonna get by

Every time i close my eyes
I can fear no pain
The times that I could burst out in flames
Away we go

Runaway from
Runaway from here
Runaway from
Runaway from here
(out of my way, out of control, out of my)
(out of my way, out of control, out of my way)

Took that quick to sink in Massive piercing in my brain
Hearts are racing as I

Throw my fist into your face
