

Fresh Air Waltz

Howard Jones

Looking at you now, you seem just a shadow
You had the energy to recharge our batteries
I suppose your success became your security
Darkness is not what you need You were the one who refused to give up
You were the one who lifted us, lifted us off our knees
Now, it's our turn to give you some help
Fresh air, that's just what you need Not the stale bread from the failing bitter table
It's so hard, where's the justice? We cry
It's there and will follow us 'til the day we die
'Til the day that we die Looking at you know, you seem just a shadow
You had the energy and you recharged our batteries
And it's our turn to give you some help
Fresh air, that's just what you need, you need
