

Hurt

Peabo Bryson

Oh, yeah, oh yeah
How do you sleep through the night
Where do you go when you hide
Waiting for the truth to call
I don't fear you anymore
How do you think I'm alright
It's the way I wait
It's the way you've changed
And I like the way you hurt inside
Always waiting for the worst, to get me by
And I like the way you hurt
Does it really come
Does it really come as a surprise
Oh, yeah, oh, yeah
From all the years that went by
Through all your shit, i've survived
You would have thought I had died
But I made it out alive

How do you sleep through the night
It's the lies you gave
Now the rules have changed
And I like the way you hurt inside
Always waiting for the worst, to get me by
And I like the way you hurt
Does it really come
Does it really come as a surprise
It's no surprise
It's no surprise
It's the lies you gave
Now the rules have changed
And I like the way you hurt inside
Always waiting for the worst, to get me by
And I like the way you hurt
After all you've done, look what I've become
And I like the way you hurt inside
Always waiting for the worst, to get me by
And I like the way you hurt
Does it really come

It doesn't really come as a surprise
