

Where Angels Fear

Breathe

Outside in a winter world sits a woman all alone
It's not the air that seems so cold, it's the love she's never known
Outside in a winter world, one lonely child roams
Will ever-loving arms unfold to give this soul a home

So they're living on hopes and they're living on dreams
While the devil is pushing them to extremes
Can their spirits be strong when for loving they long?
For the day will come when they must move on

Where angels fear to walk
(There you must walk)
Where angels fear

Outside in a winter world, there's a man who's lost his love
So many secrets left untold, should he turn and look above?
Outside in a winter world, one old man sits alone
He thinks of all the years gone by and what little love he's known

So they're living on hopes and they're living on dreams
While the devil is pushing them to extremes
Can their spirits be strong when for loving they long?
For the day will come when they must move on

Where angels fear to walk
(There you must walk)
Where angels fear
Mm-mm-mm-mm, where angels fear to love
(There you must love)
Where angels fear

Oooh, we all have troubles in our life that we must face
We're merely players in this game we call
The human race
The human race
Whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

Oooh
Where angels fear to walk
(There you must walk)

Where angels fear
Whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh
Where angels fear to love
(There you must love)
Where angels fear
Whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh

There you must love
Oh-oh, there

Oh-oh-oh-oh-whoa
There you must walk
There you must love
