Otherland

Blind Guardian

They rule the land, they're in command
They hold all strings in handThey are invisible
Out of sight they've designed
A secret place to play their games
A world they're in controlDivine law, divine law
And beware, now mind your steps

We are uninvited guests

They may find and catch us, don't forgetDo what I say and now connect Don't even ask until we're out of it

Everything's at highest stakeCome, take a look we are in

Take a breath but don't forget

Isn't real, isn't true?

An illusion nothing moreYou're part of the game You're slave to the grind oblivion

(Is your key to the otherland)You're part of the game

You're cursed, you're damned

(By now you understand)You're part of the game

You're slave to the grind oblivion

 $(You're\ welcome\ to\ the\ otherland)You'\ re\ part\ of\ the\ game$

You're cursed, you're damned

(By now you understand)We get closer, there's no better way

Lullaby lane our fate is on its way

The inner district is the place you need to know

It's overwhelming so let's rest here for a whileSomeone else appears silently

Watch me when I fall down

Everything seems real suddenly

A perfect simulationCome take a look, breathe it in

Artificial wonderlands

We are wandering around

Things shall vanish, they won't lastNow I know you understand

This world is not true

Nothing is real, nothing at all

It's bits and pieces we walk through You're part of the game

You're slave to the grind oblivion

(Is your key to the otherland)You're part of the game

You're cursed, you're damned

(By now you understand)You're part of the game

You're slave to the grind oblivion

(You've reached the promised land)You're part of the game

You're cursed, you're damned (Welcome to the otherland) Wait, I can feel things are not right Do not breathe, don't look behind There's someone else, the observerA trick of light, a fading line The entrance's gone, we can't get out of it We are slightly losing groundQuick, it is time we shall go We better leave and don't come back No way to run, nowhere to hide I fear we're walking aimlessly You're part of the game You're slave to the grind oblivion (Is your key to the otherland) You're part of the game You're cursed, you're damned (By now you understand) You're part of the game You're slave to the grind oblivion (Welcome to the otherland)You're part of the game You're cursed, you're damned (You've reached the promised land)You've crossed the line You've reached the end You've crossed the line You've reached the end
