Simple Song Of Freedom

Tim Hardin

Come and sing a simple song of freedom
Sing it like you've never sung before
Let it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
We, the people here, don't want a warHey there, Mister Black Man can you hear me?
I don't want your diamonds or your game
I just want to be, someone known to you as me and I will bet my life you want the sameCome and sing a simple song of freedom
Sing it like you've never sung before
Let it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
We, the people here, don't want a warSeven hundred million are you listening?
Most of what you read is made of lies
But speaking one to one, ain't it everybody's sun
To wake to in the morning when we rise?So come and sing a simple song of freedom
Sing it like you've never sung before
Let it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
We, the people here, don't want a warBrother Yareshenko are you busy?
If not would you drop a friend a line?
Tell me if the man, who is plowing up your land has got the war machine upon his mindCome and sing a simple song of freedom
Sing it like you've never sung before
Let it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
Taht we, the people here, don't want a warNow no doubt some folks enjoy doin' battle
Like presidents, prime ministers and kings
So let's build them shelves where they can fight among themselves and leave the people be who like to singCome and sing a simple song of freedom
Sing it like you've never sung before
Let it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
That we the people here, don't want a warLet it fill the air
Tell the people everywhere
That we the people here, don't want a war
