All of Me

Fivefold

Take a breath
Hold it tight
Trace the memory in every line
Does anyone feel what I feel?
I know you're feelin' what I feel

Oh woah

And every word is a piece of me
Every single note
Every breath I breathe
Is a cry out "Can you hear me?"
Let me know if you can hear me

And I know how it feels to be alone
I've been knocked down
Dragged to the cold
Sticks and stones never really did hurt me
I'll shine this light for the world to see

I'll spit out blood
Out on the page
Of every song that I have made
Giving all of me
I'm giving all of me
And when I step out on the stage
I sing my love,
My fear and rage
For you all to see
For you all to say yeah

Take a breath
Feel the silence
Give it a match
And I'll ignite it
Make it open up your sky
Put an ending to the night
(Oh woah)

I know how it feels to be alone

I've been knocked down
Dragged to the cold
Sticks and stones never really did hurt me
I'll shine this light for the world to see

I've spit out blood
Out on the page
In every song that I have made
Giving all of me
I'm giving all of me
And when I step out on the stage
I'll sing my love,
My fear and rage
For you all to see
For you all to say yeah

If there's one thing
I want from my life
Let it be the songs I sing
Will open your eyes
And make you see
You're not alone
One thing I want from my life
Let it be the songs I sing
Will open your eyes and make you see
You're not alone

I've spit out blood
Out on the page
Of every song that I have made
Giving all of me
I'm giving all of me yeah
And when I step out on the stage
I sing my love,
My fear and rage
For you all to see
Just to let you know
You're not alone!
