How Was I to Know

Sal Solo

My world revolved around you
Every word was a promise I was hangin' on Swept up inside a whirlwind
I just couldn't see the end till you were goneOh, I thought I would fall apart
With shattered dreams and a broken heart
Scramblin' in the darkHow was I to know that I'd be okay
Thought I'd lose it all when you walked away
How was I to know I would be the strong
I had what it takes all along
How was I to knowWhat I was so afraid of
Turned out to be my freedom in disguise
Now I know what I'm made of Guess it just took some time to realizeOh, I was blind I couldn't tell
Put too much faith in someone else
I gave up on myselfHow was I to know that I'd be okay
Thought I'd lose it all when you walked away
How was I to know I would be the strong
I had what it takes all along
How was I to knowHow was I to know that I'd be okay
Thought I'd lose it all when you walked away
How was I to know I would be the strong
I had what it takes all along
How was I to know, how was I to know
