The Fallen

The Ambience Affair

Come, walk with me
Through the world in ruin
Come, walk with me
See if you're amused
Indivisible invincible
And we are not amused
Underneath it all invisible
Add one and one to lose
One and one to lose
Fools and criminals far from minimal
Yet both have earned their due
Irresistible who picks your peace for you
It's far too hard to choose
We know what you're going through
We are the fallen, we cease to belong
Life leads us all here all along
We are the fallen, we are what's true
We all live on and we are not amused
When we are not amused
Indivisible invincible
And we are not amused
Underneath it all invisible
Add one and one to lose
One and one to lose
Fools and criminals far from minimal
Yet both have earned their due
Irresistible who picks your peace for you
It's far too hard to choose
We know what you're going through
We are the fallen, we cease to belong
Life leads us all here all along
We are the fallen, we are what's true
We all live on and we are not amused
When we are not amused, amused, amused
When we are not amused, amused, amused
When we are not amused, amused, amused
We are the fallen when we are not amused
Feast on forgiveness
And feed us the latest in doom

When we are not amused
We are the fallen when we are not amused
Through our world in ruin
See if you're amused
