I'm Going to Reach Heaven

Billy Fields

Verse: 1

I've read in the bible, of how saints in the past, held fast to God's promise, with their faith to the test, well I know they had hold of, a powerful hand, cause in the mist of the storm, when they should have gone down, they found strength to stand.

Chorus:

So let the flood waters roll and the storm winds blow, let everything hell has tarried my soul, it may hinder me, bring me down on my knees, but that's as far as I'll go, not a battle's been lost on that old rugged cross,

I'm going to reach heaven no matter the cost,

the next mountain I climb, I just might, find sweet heaven's in view.

Verse: 2

These dark stormy day's, that we're living in,

there bound to shake us, time and again, but the same grace that he gave to them, he has given to me, and the same mighty hand, that calls them to stand, still gives victory.

Ending:

the next mountain I climb, I just might,

find sweet heaven's in view, heaven's in view.

Lyrics Submitted by Christina Dulworth

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/