

Don't Be Afraid

Green River Ordinance

There's a ringing in my head, there's a ringing in my heart
That don't belong
Drowning desperately in red
I know all the things I've said that don't belong
And heavy hearted, I hear it calling

Don't be afraid, any longer
But don't be afraid, you're so much stronger
Than this

There are lines we haven't crossed
Aspirations that we tossed along the way
Even though we said we could
I just shook my head and stood there
In the way
And heavy hearted, I hear it calling

Don't be afraid, any longer
But don't be afraid, you're so much stronger
Than this, know my love is here

There's a spark in the way, of the dream that will no fade
It's a light, in the dark, and you cannot find your way
Whoa, whoa.
There's a spark in the way, another dream that will not fade,
There's a light in the dark, that's found your way

But don't be afraid, any longer
But don't be afraid, you're so much stronger, you're so much stronger
Than you used to be
You're so much stronger, you're so much stronger
Than you used to be
Know my love is so much stronger
