She's Not You

David Archuleta

Mm Yeah
See how she's lookin in my eyes
And you've got to give her that
She's a beautiful girl and she's into me but I'm too busy still lookin' back
Now I'm walking her to the door tryin' to kiss her goodnight
Something inside just don't feel right
My friends tell me I gotta give it up so I've been trying to move on
But my hearts apart and my heads not clear of the pictures from before you were gone
And I never wanna hurt no one
Tryin' to forget your name
Something inside just don't feel the same
Noo, she's not you
And I don't know what to say
But I'll say it anyway
No matter what I do
I can't believe the lie
And I just can't see it through
No, she's not you
.....Woke up in the middle of the night
Started reaching for the phone
And to take a breath and remind myself that you said you needed time alone
Didn't know what I wanted then and I know I let you down
Baby I know what I gotta do now
She's not you
And I don't know what to say

But I'll say it anyway
No matter what I do
I can't believe the lie
And I just can't see it through
She's not you when she smiles
Not you when she wakes
Or you when she cries
Not you when she breaks
And I don't want to hurt her
But I know that it's true
She's not you
Oooh woah oh, not you
No, she's, she's not you

Don't know what to say
But I'll say it anyway
No matter what I do
I can't believe the lie
And I just can't see it through
(She's not you)
She's not you
No matter what I do
But I can't believe the lie
And I just can't see it through
No, she's not you
