

Six Guns Loaded

Britny Fox

I've been away for such a long, long time
Ain't had a day without you on my mind
I miss the loving that you gave to me
Top of you is where I gotta be Your body's carved in stone in my mind
I see your ponytail from behind
I see the sweat that you and I create
Feeling heaven 'coz you're feeling great I'm overdue
Gotta shoot you Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
And you're taking me a little bit higher
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
You're my one and only flaming desire Gotta see ya soon, I'm outta my mind
Waited for you, baby, all this time
I need your loving, gotta get you good
I just don't wanna see me losing you I'm overdue
Gotta shoot you Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
And you're taking me a little bit higher
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
You're my one and only flaming desire Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
And you're taking me a little bit higher
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
You're my one and only flaming desire Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
And you're taking me a little bit higher
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
You're my one and only flaming desire Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded
And you're taking me a little bit higher
Six guns loaded, six guns fire
Six guns loaded

You're my one and only flaming desire
