

Selfish Jean

Travis

Cheers, thanks for everything
You hung me out by my heart
You're just so selfish Jean
Yes, you are Hey you threw it all away
By holding everything in
Hey Jean, don't rock the boat
When you can't swim Well, a perfect understanding
Of the finer things in life
A quite alarming knack of knowing
When to twist the knife
Oh, selfish Jean Here's to you who read everything
Left it out on a shelf
There's no one else to blame
Except yourself Well, a perfect combination
Of good etiquette and charm
You keep the chocolate biscuits
Wired to a car alarm
Oh, selfish Jean Well, I'm standing on my own
And this house is not a home
It's so sad to see you go
Things are high and things are low And it's good to know you know
If you've got nowhere to go
Well, you could spend the night with me
There will be no guarantee that I'll be here In the morning
Or any time that you call
I hear you snoring, Jean
Through the wall So hey, here's to everything
To peace and love in our time
Ah Jean, the slate is clean
I guess we're fine Well, I don't expect a miracle
Not asking you to change
If you can't see me happy
Well, just look the other way
Oh, selfish Jean, oh, selfish Jean
Jean, Jean
