

Free Fall

In Flames

Mirror, mirror, how far will I go?
Despite the foundation, I am falling
    Oh, sweet reflection
Will you save a place for me?Where am I heading?
    Could you grant me a haven?
        For what I am punished
Could I ever repent?Oh, mother nature, Im wide open
    Waiting for you to move me
        Dont keep it from me
        This is the free fall
This is the free fallI never seem to understand
    The time, the place and who I am
        Define a way to stay alive
Its like Im living a lieFather time, every time I stop and feel
    Youre there to tell me Im already late
        Dont keep it from me
This is the free fallI never seem to understand
    The time, the place and who I am
Its like Im living a lieI never seem to understand
    The time, the place and who I am
        Define a way to stay alive
Its like Im living a lieI never seem to understand
    The time, the place and who I am
        Define a way to stay alive
    Its like Im living a lie
