

Lazy

QandA

People say they're busy
They sure seem to be
Crazy busy
Running hard
That used to be me But now my life is different
From the moment that we met
Well, you made a real impression
I am changed I must admit So you have to know I'm lazy
It isn't hard to do
'Cause Lazy means I spend more time with you When I was a mini-me
I'd play from dawn to dusk
I never lacked for new adventures
Until the day that I grew up And I learned that I was in the wrong
That diligence was number one
For years I took that path of truth
Until the day you shook me up, and I turned into Lazy
It isn't hard to do
'Cause Lazy means I spend more time with you I gave my two week notice and put away my ties
Now I clean the house, I make the bed, and tuck you in at night
Well I don't see much of my old friends, but that's ok with me
Our life's so good together
There's no place I'd rather be So I'll admit I'm lazy
It isn't hard to do
Lazy means I spend more time with you
By now you know I'm lazy
I'm lazy through and through
'Cause Lazy means I spend more time with you
