

Five Tattoos

Ella Henderson

Tight jeans with a rip on the knee
So close, but it ain't where I wanna be
And I'm lovin' every minute of your company
But have I read this so wrong Maybe I moved too fast
Or maybe I missed a sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me Brown eyes, with your old woolly hat
Five tattoos from your shoulders to your hands
You can give me what I have never had
Boy you keep leading me on But maybe I move too fast
Or maybe I missed a sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me Ooh
Tight jeans with a rip on the knee
