Simple Request

Second Class

request every other day i try to avoid it and everything i say it just reminds me more and every other way i try to approach it it all ends up the same as the ones before and i don't want to know your name in the end its all the same just the other day i got a little nervous and i should have walked away instead i turned and ran thought i was brave but i must have been mistaken i think its safe to say i wont make that mistake again and i don't want to know your name in the end its all the same all i want is everything i don't think that's much to ask i'll pretend i'm listening cause all i want is everything you have to call your own it might sound crazy but can you blame me looks like there's no one home this is my last chance don't make me have to ask all i want is everything i don't think that's much to ask i'll pretend i'm listening cause all i want is everything you have
