Long Road Home

Charlie Simpson

There's something in your heart
Telling you to stay
So Please give it a thought at least another day
If your decision stitches then i wont be in your way
I thought you never wanted us to be apartBut you know its such a long road home
And you cant just make it all alone
Its such a long way home
If you let go
You're undone
Its such a long road home
You never really call
You're never there at all
