Masterplan

Stefanie Heinzmann

Don't speak, sit and listen.
You can whisper, but don't you shout.
They say don't fight it,
'coz you won't beat it.
So check you're thinking,
and watch your mouth.But you can shake down,
turn that ass around.
DonT' let'em sell you out.
You'll see you're better than you think you are
and finally this opportunity now what' it gonna be.
So won't you tell me tell me yeah(What are you gonna do?)
Gonna raise the pressure
(Where are you going to?)
I know my destination
(Why don't you understand?)
Gonna make my move
(It's all in the masterplan)Messin up the masterplan
save your questions, no opinions
Take a backseat and know you're place.
There ain't no room for imperfectionDon't want your ideas,
don't like your face.
You don't have to,
do what they tell you to.Ain't got no hold on you
You see you're better than you think you are.
It's your time,
ain't gonna pass you by.
These reules they don't apply,
you better tell me tell me yeah.What are you...
(What are you gonna do?)
Kick it inro action
(Where are you going to?)
I'll take my own direction.
