The Token Man

Modern English

What do you feel when you see
The token man in passing crowds?
A rush of thought and imagery
Do you turn your eyes away?Does it leave you all full of options
Or is there nothing to think about?
Another lost man to join the millions
Fill him up, he will respond
Fill him up, he will respondFill him up, he will respond
Cuts him down, catch the clown
Catch the clown drag him down
Dragged him down
Who is he to want to think?Who is he to want to want?
He's no sensation, he must be wrong
Drag him down no place to think, no time to act
You can, you can
Fill him up, he will respondWhat do you feel when you see
The token man in passing crowds?
A rush of thought and imagery?
Do you turn your eyes away?
