Sunny Daze

Eric Lindell

Some rainy days you know I dig the rain
It's rollin' down my window pane
And some rainy days I have no love
Some rainy days you know I have no love
And some days I can't get up
Lord I have no love

And the Sunny Daze are few and far between
Right before your darkest hour it seems
It seems the sun may never shine
And right before you think that everything
It may never change
Surely the sun will come out to shine

Some rainy days you know I dig the rain
It's rollin' down my window pane
Some rainy days I have no love
Some rainy days you know I have no love
And some days I can't get up
Hell I have no love

And the Sunny Daze are few and far between
Right before your darkest hour it seems
It seems the sun may never shine
And right before you think that everything
That it may never change
Surely the sun will come out to shine (repeat 3x)
