Scarlett

Judybats

Falling like leaves from porcelain trees
We break
Shattered by the weight of the fallLove is Scarlett down the stairs
Pushed or fallen, fallen or shoved
Arching in the air, promised or poisoned
But always lovedDespair versus desire, this game
What a loss, what gain? Whose fault?
Where to blame?Love is Scarlett down the stairs
Pushed or fallen, fallen or shoved
Arching in the air, promised or poisoned
But always lovedEverything you say to me
Strikes me like a warm disease
Damage is a luxury
Dereliction by degreesEverything you say to me
Strikes me like a warm disease
Damage is a luxury
Dereliction by degreesWhat attracts excites us
To the point of distraction
To the edge of dislikeLove is Scarlett down the stairs
Pushed or fallen, fallen or shoved
Arching in the air, promised or poisoned
But always lovedEverything you say to me
Strikes me like a warm disease
Danger is a luxury
Drown me in your darling seasSaw a horse the other day with one eye
And I thought
How nice to see only one side of it allLove is Scarlett down the stairs
Pushed or fallen, fallen or shoved
Arching through the air, promised or poisoned
But always lovedAlways loved, loved, loved, loved, loved
Always loved, loved, loved, loved, loved
Always loved, loved, loved, loved, loved
