Baby

Lust & Lies

You're running off the track
I saw you on your back
You have to know
I just can't let it go
I know it's hard to breathe
When you're down on your knees
You must be fucked up
So I'll say it slow

I'm the one who told ya
I'm the one who showed ya
I'm the one who owns ya, yeah

Tell me baby
Tell me baby
Tell me baby

Why is it that
Every time we draw the line it
All starts again
The silent sound of what's been bound
Grows on the edge

I can't see anyone around me
Caught up drinking with my alter personality
Doesn't matter where you try to go
The mirror breaks at midnight
And I'm takin' control

You try to save face
Where is your sense of taste
Are you afraid of going down
Into the nightmare
The one where no one cares
What will you do without your crown

I will dissent about it
I won't relent about it
I can't forget about it, no

Tell me baby
Tell me baby
Tell me baby

Why is it that
Every time we draw the line it
All starts again
That silent sound now much too loud
Rings in your head

I can't see anyone around me
Caught up drinking with my alter personality
Doesn't matter where you try to go
The mirror breaks at midnight
And I'm takin' control

Baby, tell me please
Baby, I don't feel like me

I can't see anyone around me
The mirror broke at midnight
And I'm walkin' alone
