Runaway (Hammers Remix)

Boomkat

Lately I've been afraid
Something's going right inside of my brain
And it's getting hard to explain
But I see everythingI've been fighting all of my life
Always seem to put my heart on the line
And it's a lonely road I climb
When I see everythingAnd when I feel it coming
I run into the shadows
I'm trying to fake it
Fake it till I make it
People try and save me
I just wanna runaway
Runaway, runaway, runaway
I runawayYou see we're born with light in our hearts
And people come around and tear us apart
And when my whole world turns to dark
I can't see anything
I can't see anythingAnd when I feel it coming
I run into the shadows
I'm trying to fake it
Fake it till I make it
People try and save me
I just wanna runaway
Runaway, runaway, runawayI want to fit inside a world
Where I could be queen of all the dark inside
So I would never have to see the light
And I would never have to runI just wanna runaway
Runaway oh oh oh
Runaway
I just keep running
Runaway oh oh oh
I just wanna runaway
I just wanna run
Runaway, runaway
I just wanna, I just wanna
Runaway
I runaway
