

Locker

Mike Krol

I'm walking home again
Same time same story same everything, everything
Im thinking now about you
I wanna be your everything, everyday
And when the weekend comes I Know
I'll be seen there by myself
When I think about what I should've said
Put my picture in your locker
So that you know It's true
Put my picture in your locker
Yyyes I Love You
I'm feeling sad today
When I saw her cross the hall yeah
She even looked away
I wanna scream, but that's not like me
If I could, be with you
I think you'd love me to
We got the reign combination
Put my picture in your locker
So that you know It's true
Put my picture in your locker
Yyyes...
Put my picture in your locker
So that you know It's true
Put my picture in your locker
Yyyes I Love You
