

The Biggest Lie

HÃ¼sker DÃ¼

I'm waiting for the train
Subway that only goes one way
A stupid thing that'll come to pull us apart
    Make everybody late
    You spent everything you had
    Wanted everything to stop that bad
And now I'm a crushed credit card registered to Smith
    Not the name that you call me with
    You turned white like a Saint
I'm tired of dancing on a pot of gold flake paint
    Oh we're so very precious, you and I
And everything that you do makes me want to die
    Oh I just told the biggest lie
    I just told the biggest lie
    The biggest lie
