Vanity

Flowing Tears

sometimes I wish it would never end sometimes I wish I couldn't care sometimes I feel like I'd never see you againtake a walk on an autumn night inhale the stars and drown in their gleam does it really take dying children to see what makes the world go round?sometimes I wish I could drown all them smiles and fears...but as long as I can drown in my own I guess I won t give a fuck anyway...
