Knocking At Your Door

Glenn Medeiros

ooooh
ooooh ohhhhh ohI used to think I lived... to be in love, but what I had to give was not enough.Now you look into the mirror and you'll see the reflection of just how our love used to be.And though..... we had it all..... we wanted even more....even more....We don't have to look for love,It's knocking at our door....I said let's take it slow, but you didn't care.What was to be our future is now our past.
And I am the best that you will find.
We were both the best we left behind.....
And though..... we had it all.....
we wanted even more....
even more....
Wanted so much more...
We don't have to look for love,It's knocking at our door.....And though..... we had it all.....
we wanted even more....
even more....
And I know.....
we'd trade it all
to be in love once more.... like before..... (just like we were before)
We don't have to look for love,
(The search is over)
it's closer than before....Whoa ohhhh, we don't have to look for love.....
It's knocking at our door.....Ohhhhhh, ohh, ohOhhh yeah.....
