What About The Bond (4: 55)

disharmony gives way to mute helplessness

not enough communication too much not expressed it's all too easy to let go of hope to think there's nothing worth saving and let it all go up in smoke what about the the bond

(Chorus:)

what about the mystical unity

sealed in the loving presence of the Father dysfunction of the institutions that should give a frame to work in got to find our own solutions confusion pressure from all sides got to head right down the centre in the love that will abide what about the bond (repeat chorus) man and woman made to be one flesh nobody said it would be easy but can we let go now and fail the test?

now you could say life is full of moving on but do you want the pain that's already been spent to all be wasted -- c'mon what about the bond

(repeat chorus) (Ottawa, March 28th, 1980)
