

Listening to the Higson's

Elf Power

Lucifer in Frogna
One night in November
Listening to The Higsons
Said "I gotta let this hen out
And I thought I heard them singing
And give this hen some eyeballs
Running out of living"
Won't you see to me
Won't you see for me
Listening to The Higsons And I thought I heard them singing
One night in November
The Higsons come from Norwich
But I prefer East Grinstead
I'm running out of living
Sing "I gotta let this hen out"
Won't you see for me Won't you see to me Listening to The Higsons
Gotta let
Gotta let this hen out
