

Lowdown

Iggy Pop

I don't want to throw away my time
Playing games I don't respect or like
I can't give away my sovereignty
To existence with no song of me There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low
There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low I built myself a beautiful brick wall
Gets a little higher every day
[Incomprehensible] ignorance inhabits me
'Cause I've already chased my love away There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low
There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low Take that happy banner off the wall
I don't need to see no smiling face
All I really want's a cup of tea
To feel a warmth inside of me There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low
There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low
There's a hole in my heart, I'm lowdown
There's a hole in my heart, I'm low
